7.2 Any liability of the Service Provider under clause 7.1 will be reduced proportionately to represent the extent to which the Consignor (or any other person)'s negligent or wrongful act or omission caused the loss, Damage, mis-delivery, delay in delivery or non-delivery of the Goods.

- (a) an address to which notices will be sent; and

- 16.2 Without prejudice to any other rights the Service Provider may have under Law, if charges are not paid when due, or the Goods are not collected when required or designated, the Service Provider may:
- (a) remove all or any of the Goods and store them as the Service Provider thinks fit, at the Consignor's risk and expense; or
 - (b) without notice and immediately in the case of perishable Goods, or otherwise on the provision of 14 days' notice, open and sell all or any of the Goods as the Service Provider thinks fit (whether by private treaty or public auction, including auction on an internet based platform) and apply the proceeds to discharge the lien and costs of sale without being liable to any person for any loss caused.
- 16.3 The parties agree that the lien arising under these conditions:
- (a) attaches to the Goods when the Goods are accepted by the Service Provider; and
 - (b) is a security interest.
- 16.4 On request by the Service Provider, the Consignor must promptly do anything for the purposes of ensuring that any security interest created under, or provided for by, these conditions is enforceable, perfected (including perfection by registration), maintained and is otherwise effective. Anything that is required to be done under this clause will be done at the Consignor's expense. The Consignor agrees to reimburse the Service Provider's costs in connection with any action taken by the Service Provider under or in connection with this clause.
- 16.5 The parties agree that, to the extent permitted by the PPSA:
- (a) sections 95, 118, 121(4), 125, 130, 132(3)(d), 132(4), 135, 142 and 143 of the PPSA do not apply (unless the Consignor is otherwise notified in writing by the Service Provider); and
 - (b) any right to receive a notice, statement or verification statement under sections 129, 130, 132, 134, 135 or 157 of the PPSA is waived.

17. SERVICE PROVIDER'S CHARGES

- 17.1 The Service Provider's charges will be deemed fully earned on receipt of the Goods by the Service Provider and are non-refundable in any event. The Consignor agrees to pay all sums due to the Service Provider without any deduction, counterclaim or set-off.
- 17.2 The Service Provider's charges are due within the credit terms agreed in writing between the Consignor and the Service Provider. If the Service Provider has not agreed to any credit terms, the charges are payable in advance.
- 17.3 If the Consignor defaults in making any payment in accordance with these conditions, then all amounts owed to the Service Provider will immediately become due and payable.

Such permissible delay period will commence upon the Service Provider reporting for loading or unloading.

17.6 If the Consignor instructs the Service Provider that the Service Provider's charges will be paid by the consignee or any other third party and the consignee or third party does not pay the Service Provider's charges within seven days of the date of delivery or attempted delivery of the Goods, the Consignor must pay such charges.

21. FORCE MAJEURE EVENT

21.1 If, because of a Force Majeure Event, the Service Provider is unable to carry out an obligation under any agreement incorporating these conditions:

- (a) the Service Provider must give the Consignor prompt written notice and reasonable particulars of the Force Majeure Event and, so far as is known, the probable extent that the Service Provider will be unable to perform or be delayed in performing its obligation; and
- (b) the relevant obligations of the Service Provider and the Consignor (other than any obligation of the Consignor to pay money), so far as they are affected by the Force Majeure Event, will be suspended during the continuance of the Force Majeure Event.

21.2 If the Service Provider gives a notice under clause 21.1, the parties must meet promptly and, in any event within 14 days, and each use reasonable endeavours to reach a mutually acceptable solution to alleviate any hardship or unfairness caused to either party as a result of the Force Majeure Event.

22. NOTIFICATION OF CLAIM

22.1 Notwithstanding any other provision of these conditions (other than clause 23), the Service Provider will, in any event, be discharged from all liability whatsoever in respect of the Goods unless written notice of a claim or an intended claim (together with particulars of the circumstances on which the claim is based) is given to the Service Provider:

23.2 The Service Provider and Consignor must comply with all Law, including Chain of Responsibility Law.

- 23.3 The Consignor must not impose any requirement on the Service Provider that would directly or indirectly encourage or require the Service Provider or any person on behalf of the Service Provider to speed, drive while fatigued or otherwise perform the Services in an unsafe manner or in breach of Law.

- 25.2 The failure of a party to take action to enforce its rights under any agreement incorporating these conditions or the granting of any time or indulgence will not be construed as a waiver of the provision nor as a waiver of the right of the party at a later time to enforce its rights under any agreement incorporating these conditions.
- 25.3 Where the Consignor comprises two or more persons, an agreement or obligation to be performed or observed by the Consignor binds those persons jointly and severally.
- 25.4 If any provision of these conditions is invalid, illegal or unenforceable, that provision will, to the extent that it is invalid, illegal or unenforceable, be treated as severed from this agreement, without affecting the validity and enforceability of the remaining provisions.
